This yearbook is dedicated to the everyday dreamer and to those who make their dreams a reality.

Dreams often reflect the hopes, desires, and wishes for the future. It is when we strive to achieve these dreams, to make them a reality, that we begin to make our futures.

Everyone in this annual shares a dream, the dream of increasing knowledge and broadening horizons. Some seek to make college a step on the way to a larger dream — the dream of achieving an exciting and rewarding career.

Some have made their dream of attending college a reality. Now they are searching for another dream.

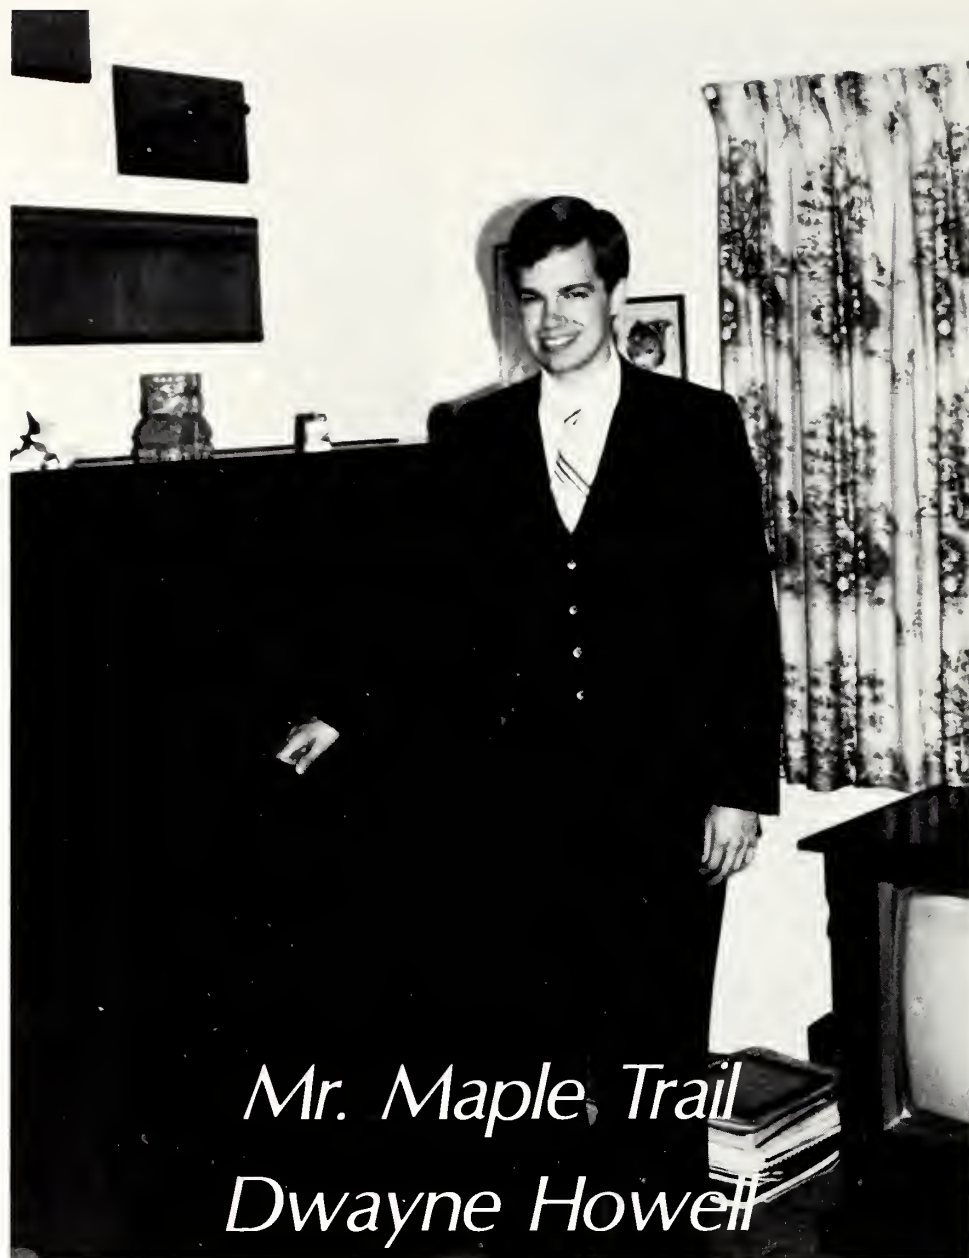

Dreams are still not fully understood by science. It is still questioned whether dreams are just a release of emotions or a view of the past. The debate even concerns whether or not a person dreams in color. Through all the studies one fact remains, we all need to dream.

Homecoming Week

The dream of being chosen as a candidate for homecoming queen was realized by twelve of Campbellsville's lovely ladies. The twelve then dreamed of winning the crown and, for one, this dream came true. Homecoming also provided an opportunity for many to demonstrate their powers of illusion as they created floats for the parade theme "Celebrations around the World." The week also provided for Johnnie Dean the dream of returning to Campbellsville to do the Homecoming concert. The final dream was realized by the basketball team with the Homecoming game victory.

Tymes wins 9 awards at KIPA

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

We are a small weekly newspaper concentrating on upgrading our quality this year.

We are very interested in seeing your Five Star All American newspaper and request that you send us some sample copies for our staff to review.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
The Wildcat Staff

Three

Tymes' writers to attend KIPA conference

Three Journalism students will be attending the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association Convention at Northern Kentucky University on April 16-17.

The KIPA officers rescheduled the convention because the original dates March 12-13, conflicted with mid-term exams and spring breaks.

Mary Anne Wood, KIPA Executive Secretary, informed the "Tymes" that a strong convention is ahead.

The "Tymes" will be entering the Newspaper Contest consisting of 24 events. Campbellsville is a Division "B" paper in the competition due to an enrollment of less than 3,000.

The College students attending the conference are: Steve Davis, "Tymes" editor-in-chief; Alice Biskey, "Tymes" staff Writer;

The Campus Tymes won nine awards at the annual meeting of the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association recently at Northern Kentucky University.

Judges grouped awards into two divisions: Division A for university papers and Division B for college papers.

The Campus Tymes won second place in Division B

for overall page layout, the major category of the contest.

Editor Steve Davis, a sophomore from Campbellsville, was also awarded second place for editorials and third place for humor columns.

Richard Swihart, a senior from Owensboro, received both a first place and an honorable mention in the news feature category. He won second place for sports photographs.

Barbara Duvall, a senior from Frankfort, Ky., was awarded first place for humor columns and third place for spot news.

Gary Ford, a senior from Hodgenville, won honorable mention for editorial cartoons.

"This is two more awards than we won at KIPA last year," according to L.D. Kennedy, journalism professor and adviser to the student newspaper. Campbellsville College offers a minor in journalism.

For instance, we wax our copy in a fry (that sits on a board over the toilet seat in the dwarf bathroom). Fortunately, this is one equipment problem that has now been taken care of — we now have our own waxer thanks to L. D. Kennedy.

Then we have to beg, borrow, and even appropriate enough supplies such as border tape, scissors, tape, razor blades (not for shaving) and even film.

Then, if permission is granted by public relation photographers, art department students, the administration or whoever has debts on the darkroom facilities in the Fine Arts Center, we commence to develop pic-

The two-day affair will consist of meetings, lectures, banquet and other festivities. Last year the "Tymes" walked away with nine awards.

In 1980, the "Tymes" was overall layout winner at the convention.

'Tymes' receives 3rd All-American

The Campus Tymes has received its third consecutive
"All-American" honor rating from the Associated Collegiate Press of Minneapolis, Minn.

Four marks of distinction
in a possible five categories were awarded the Tymes by a veteran newspaper person who evaluated it.

The veteran judge had several comments on "The Tymes" —

*Sports coverage appears to be complete.
*The birth control story
(By Gale Pierce) and the budget story (By Steve Davis) reflect considerable research and journalistic effort. (These articles were published in Mar. 9, 1981 issue.)

*Headline writing and presentation is a stron

of the 'Tymes'.
*Advertising and cut
are good.
*Good coverage of camp
and great feature an
in-depth stories.
*The Tymes seems to provide a wide range of stories and coverage of your campus.

*Headlines and feature stories are quite good for a newspaper with your resources.

This award was given to the 1981 spring semester
staff, which included editor,
Tom McDonald; assistant editors, Steve Davis and Richard Swihart; staff writers, Barb Duvall and Gale Pierce; and cartoonist, Gary Ford. L. D. Kennedy is the adviser to the paper.

Editor's Note

This annual is dedicated to the everyday dreamer and the accomplishment of his dreams. The annual staff has attempted to capture the spirit, memories, and dreams of the students, faculty, and staff of Campbellsville College. We have intended to show the completion of most of the dreams of the students as they finished their first, or last year at Campbellsville.

This attempt would never have been completed unless for the tireless work and worry of the staff. I personally owe a great deal of respect, admiration, and thanks to Greg White, Donna Godbey, Dawn Essig Camic, David O'Toole, Tim Estes, and Dr. Robert Doty. This Annual would not be before you now if not for the long hours spent by these dedicated staff members. I also hope that you enjoy this annual and appreciate each staff members' efforts to produce it for you.

*With many thanks to all,
Bill Sadler
